A painter with a vivid imagination, Cosima has always been creative and a free thinker. Now it appears she s lost control of her mind. Or has she? At the suggestion of her police lieutenant husband, Cosima agrees to seek help at Logan Flats, a sanctuary for troubled women. Once she s out in the New Mexico desert, however, she discovers she is not free to leave. In fact, she no longer has control of her own life. Fortunately, she s got a new friend, the handsome rancher Jeremiah North. Does he believe there s nothing wrong with her? Will he help her get her life back? Does she even want that life anymore? A romantic thriller, Desert Lights grabs readers by the throat and does not let go. The seductive story of love, sanity, and betrayal will remind readers of Gaslighting and Girl, Interrupted.
