Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Random Shots and Southern Breezes, Containing Critical Remarks on the Southern States and Southern Institutions, Vol. 2 of 2: With Semi-Serious Observations on Men and Manners In the course of my visits to the residence of this hospitable gentleman, I had frequent Opportunities to observe the treatment of slaves; and, without undertaking a vindication of the character of the planters, I may be at liberty to say, that experience and observation have convinced me that they have been most grossly misrepresented on this subject. I am not disposed to go so far as Mrs. Carmichael, in attributing to them a galaxy of virtues such as could only be found in the fabled Arcadia; but I am disposed to go as far as that lady in refuting the imputations of immorality and cruelty which have so frequently been brought against them. The treatment which the negroes receive on the estates of Monsieur Pititititit re?ects the highest credit on the humanity of their master. To say that they are under-worked, and over-fed, and far happier than the labourers of Great Britain, would hardly convey a sufficiently clear notion of their actual condition. They put me much more in mind of a community of grown-up children, spoiled by too much kindness, than of a body of dependants, much less a company of slaves. I conversed with them at different times, and on every topic connected with their situation; and I not only found them extremely contented with their lot, but generally disposed to reject the boon of freedom, should it be offered them.
