Excerpt: .in British Guiana, which, in view of the Brazilian Government, constitute an infraction of the Convention of 1842. I beg leave to inform you that I am in communication with the Secretary of State for the Colonies on the subject. I have, o. Sir, Foreign Office, August 20, 1896. AFTER communication with the Secretary of State for the Colonies, I have the honour to reply to your note of the 15th ultimo, in which you called attention to the Gold Mining Regulations issued by the Government of British Guiana on the 25th April last, as being inconsistent with the engagements entered into by Her Majesty s Government in the Convention of 1842 regarding the boundaries between Brazil and British Guiana. The Brazilian Government consider that the definition of a district, which includes the Demerara and Essequibo Rivers, and all their tributaries, except the Mazaruni and Cuyuni Rivers and the tributaries of the Essequibo River below Bartica, might be construed as applying to the Rupununi River, which is also a tributary of the Essequibo. I need hardly assure you that, in framing the Regulations in question, the Colonial Government had no wish to make them apply to any territory which might be outside their jurisdiction. The Colony is divided into five districts for the purposes of the Regulations, and it is evident that, in referring to certain rivers and their tributaries, the Government only had in view such portions of those rivers and such...
