Lee Press. Paperback. Condition: New. Lindsey S. M. Loegters (illustrator). 326 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.8in. Its a natural phenomenon -- a small country in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean hidden from the rest of the world by a circle of unnavigable fog. Its called Giggleswick, and twelve-year-old Elliot Bisby has never heard of it, that is until he and his family are approached by an unusual man and asked to move there. Before they know it, the struggling Bisby family finds themselves on a tiny boat captained by a man who prefers a singing parrot to a compass, and they soon embark on a journey that no other seaman could make and live to tell about. In Giggleswick, Elliot and his parents find themselves mingling with a colorful set of locals the likes of which include an Irish-Arabian bagpiper, a man who thinks hes a knight, and a woman who does her exercises on the roof in high-heels. At last, Elliot has found the happiness hes been waiting for and a place to call his own, but what he doesnt know, is that helping Giggleswick to remain hidden from the rest of the world may prove far more difficult and dangerous than he could have ever imagined . . .
