Excerpt from Greek and Latin Compositions At the time of the death of the late Rev. Richard Shilleto, in 1876, it was known to us that there existed a large number of pieces of composition in Greek and Latin which were attributed to him, and which were in common use among old pupils and others engaged in tuition; and, though it was not considered advisable to attempt a collection and publication of those in our own possession at that time, the idea of doing this in the future was always in our thoughts. Some few years ago, however, it was strongly represented to us that it was the opinion of a well-known public school master - an opinion which was entitled to serious consideration - that a really authentic collection of Mr Shilleto s compositions would be of distinct benefit to the cause of education; whilst we ourselves had always felt that there was no guarantee for the genuineness of those pieces which were floating about...
