Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Innocence lost. Paradise found. Maggie York, a convent-raised foundling, knows the Duke of Dunwoody s sexual tastes are a shade or two darker than most, but marries him anyway-partly because she has no other prospects and partly because, try as she might, she can t seem to stop fantasizing about her dashing rake of a guardian. Two years ago, something she saw him do lured her from the garden of innocence into the orchard of fleshly desires--and she s been hungry for more ever since. Robert Armstrong, the duke, is a Roman Catholic whose extreme devotions as a boy colored his passions as a man. He s also a slave to the times in which he lives--and to his king. Everything he is, everything he holds dear, depends upon staying in Charles II s good graces. Unfortunately, Maggie isn t who the king wanted Robert to marry. Now, to make amends, the duke must either whore his wife or be reduced to a penniless and unprotected commoner at a time when those of his faith are feared and hated throughout Great Britain. Whose interests will the duke choose to protect?.
