

African Modernity and the Philosophy of Culture in the Works of Femi Euba (Hardback)

By -

Lexington Books, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book is a significant and original contribution to the ongoing conversation on modernity. It uses the creative and critical works of Nigerian playwright and novelist Femi Euba to demonstrate the place and function of African cultures in modernity and makes the case for the vibrancy of such cultures in the shaping and constitution of the modern world. In addition to a critique of Euba's fifty-year artistic career, this book offers an account of Euba's formative relationship with the 1986 Nobel Prize for Literature winner Wole Soyinka, during the promising days of the Nigerian theatre in the immediate post-independence period, and the effect of this relationship on Euba's artistic choices and reflections. Euba contributes to our understanding of Africa's negotiation of modernity in significant ways, especially in his sensitive reading of Esu, the Yoruba god of fate and chance, as an artistic consciousness whose historical and ideological mobility during New World slavery, during Africa's colonial period, and in the manifestations in the black diaspora today emblemizes the process we call modernity. By using ritual, myth, and satire as avenues to the...
