

Man Made God: A Collection of Essays (Paperback)

By Barbara G. Walker

Stellar House Publishing, LLC, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Man Made God is a series of articles by the author of The Woman's Encyclopedia of Myths and Secrets. Extraordinary independent scholar of comparative religion and mythology Barbara G. Walker takes us through a journey back in time to when the Goddess and her consort/son ruled supreme, into the era when the patriarchy usurped Her worship, right up to Barbara's own personal experience being raised a Christian. In this remarkable collection, Walker turns a critical eye towards: -Religion as big business -Religion's effects on children -The Bible as a moral guide and history -Biblical infallibility -The doctrine of original sin -The biblical attitude towards sexuality -God as Father -Church doctrine regarding women -Church history vis-a-vis the Dark Ages, Inquisition, and book- and witch-burning -Christian afterlife traditions -Traditional Christian origins -And much more. A brilliant expose of the long lost history of religious ideology, including goddess worship, and a scathing indictment of the male-dominated cultus. No beating around the bush, no nitpicking details, no confused questioning of what was-Walker cuts straight to the heart with her...
