Excerpt from The Trefoil: Wellington College, Lincoln, and Truro I have called this book The Trefoil, because the trefoil-leaf is the principal charge upon our family arms, and seems to me to symbolise aptly the first three public stages of what was a very adventurous and surprising career, the life of my father, Edward White Benson, as Head Master, Canon, and Bishop. I have already traced the outline Of these years in his biography but his career was a long and active one, much space had to be allotted to his tenure Of the Archbishopric, and thus the earlier stages were unduly compressed.
