Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Annual Report, 1941-42 A little further South by East, your eyes will be attracted by the gleam of gold on the slope of a green Sussex hill. It is the light of the Sunshine Home for Blind Babies at East Grinstead. Within its airy rooms and lovely garden are gathered together little ones from many blind spots, some from homes comfortable enough but unlit by expert knowledge, others from the foul tenements of the slums. But one Home is not enough for the blind babies of England and Wales. Look towards the Mid lands and you will see again the gleam of a Sunshine Home at Leamington. A year ago you would have seen a third gleam in the North West, but the Home at Southport was bombed by the Nazi airmen, and there is nothing there now but crumbling brick and dust. Yet the third gleam only sank to rise again, far in the North, at Whitheld Hall in Northumberland, while another gleam of gold will soon be visible at Northampton, where the fourth Sunshine Home is shortly to be opened - not because the number of blind babies in our country is increasing, but because the reputation earned by the Sunshine Homes is bringing more babies under our care.
